EU Regulation 2017/821

U.S. "Dodd–Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act": Section 1502

Based on the information from our raw material suppliers, we hereby confirm that none of the formulations used in our products or product lines in our current portfolio contain any of the following substances

Tin

Tantalum

Tungsten

Derivatives of the above

Gold

from mines which are directly or indirectly financed or promoted by armed groups in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or in neighbouring countries.

The Röchling Group does not act as a Union importer under the terms of the EU Regulation and is therefore not subject to the disclosure obligations set down in the EU Regulation 2017/821 and the Dodd–Frank Act. However, we are aware of the importance and significance of this policy. In the context of the due diligence obligations, our raw material suppliers are obliged to comply with the general principles and requirements set down in our Code of Conduct.

The Röchling Group's Code of Conduct defines the Röchling Group's general principles and requirements towards its services and goods suppliers with respect to their responsibility in relation to people and the environment.

We undertake to respond in an adequate manner if we become aware of any indications of the substances mentioned above being present in our raw materials during the course of our investigations.

Further information is available on our website www.roebling.com and on the website of the [Conflict-Free Sourcing Initiative \(CFSI\)](http://Conflict-Free Sourcing Initiative (CFSI)).
