

Declaration of Conformity

Based on current and available information, we declare that Brett Martin Ltd products are in compliance with the requirements of:

- EUREACH
- UK REACH

The REACH legislations outline the Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation (and restriction) of Chemicals in both the UK and in EU. It legislates for an ongoing plan to review the use of chemicals in the workplace. Brett Martin fully endorses the guiding principles of the legislation and is committed to ensuring that our products are compliant with the regulations. Under REACH definitions Brett Martin is a downstream manufacturer of articles. All materials used in our processes, our products and our packaging comply with the REACH legislation, ensuring that there are no Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) present. Regular checks are carried out, as the legislation is updated regularly, to maintain this position.
